

The Mindful Leader
Session: The First Three Practices

Stack #1: Basic Attention Training

Stack #1: Basic Attention Training

- Follow your breath in & out
- Find where you notice it most (tip of nose, abdomen etc.)
- When you lose attention, simply note it and return to the breath
- Be kind & non-judgmental – EVERYONE loses focus
- Noticing you've lost focus IS the practice!

Stack #2: Six Mindful Breaths

Stack #2: Six Mindful Breaths

- Inhale smoothly for a count of two
- Exhale gently & smoothly for a count of four
- If 2-4 feels too short, try 4 in & 6...
- ...or 6 in & 8 out
- Repeat for six breaths
- Don't push yourself!
- Target breathing rate is about 5 per minute
- ...but don't become goal obsessed (!): the key is that the exhale is longer than the inhale

Stack #3: 'Seat & Feet'

Stack #3: 'Seat & Feet'

- 'Drop your attention' to your feet
- Simply notice any sensations in the toes or feet –hot , cold, tingling –just notice
- Feel the feet in contact with the ground
- Now 'drop your attention' to your 'seat'
- Notice where your behind is in contact with the chair
- Be aware of your clothing in contact with your thighs and legs
- Notice how gravity is rooting you to the chair
- Let go!
- Don't visualise –notice!

Stack #4: Attention Training – Using Mind & Body

Stack #4: Attention Training - Using Mind & Body

- Core focus/ attention practice
- Promote calm & settles thoughts
- Use it every time you think 'what next?'
- Can be done sitting, standing, walking
- Can be done with open or closed eyes
- Intention prevents goal orientation from derailing the practice

With an intention, there is no required result—we are simply connecting to our chosen course. "I'm just going to practice, and see what happens."
