FOCUS ON ASIA-PACIFIC June 23rd – 24th

Coaching skills for an agile organisation

Delivered virtually, or if Covid permits as a hybrid event, this two-day programme is open to all coaches and leaders. The focus of the programme is not on the limited application of “agile technology” but on how the whole organisation can become more flexible and responsive to change --- and the role of coaches in supporting this. It presents the latest thinking and research on how organisations can become future fit and the roles of leaders and coaches in helping them do so.

The programme qualifies for coach continuing professional development.

June 23-24

The Coaching Challenge

Throughout the year, David will be encouraging coaches in developed countries to form action learning partnerships with colleagues in developing countries. The idea is to foster co-learning across the economic divide.

I hope to see you at one of the celebratory events happening soon!
